Successful School Fair

The Schools Fair which was held at the Agricultural college last Wednesday was very gratifying to those who have during the past summer worked to make it a success. One school this year took part in the exhibition so that it was not surprising to see the large attendance of parents and children and the scores of exhibits produced that were lined up in the college grounds.

The exhibits were on display in the large tent and in the various college buildings, with the name of the schools.

There were, all told, some 2,500 entries, and it is estimated that the total value of the exhibits was $10,000.

Prizes were given by Principal Stevens, Mr. T. F. Inspector of schools for High River district, Mr. Hobson, Inspector of schools for Macleod, and Mr. Benson, the Dominion poultry expert. Prof. Hooper took the chair.

The scholars from the public school made their debut to the grounds during the afternoon, and their neat and tidy appearance was remarked upon by the many visitors who were in town.

Baseball matches between the rural schools were played in the afternoon and the running and jumping contests were held.

The ball games were crowded all the afternoon and at least a thousand people must have been in attendance.

The money spent by the government in conducting these school fairs is well spent and the results of the investment will be seen in the years to come in the farming and stock raising and in the prosperity and wealth to the country which must be eventually.

The complete list of the prizes was not ready for the press in time for this issue, but will appear next week. The following is a partial list:

Best display—exhibit—Prairie View. Best sample—exhibit—Prairie View. Best collection of woods—Northern Lights.

Best collection of insects—Grassy Plains.

By having best collection of rege-ns—Lorne Wakefield, of Balfour school.

By having best stock exhibit—Peter Campbell, of Balquhidder.

Best cooking exhibit—Lulu Schum of Star Line.

Girl winning silver wrist watch for best exhibit at the fair, and having best hair in best order—Margaret McGillivray, in Prairie View.

PURIFICATION OF REX BEACH'S FAMOUS NOVEL. PLEASE PATRONS OF GRAND

"The Ne'er Do Well" was witnessed by a very large audience at the Grand theatre recently, and proved one of the best screen attractions that have been shown in theatre for some time. It is a dramatization of Rex Beach's famous novel. It is skillfully staged, and the picture throughout is one in which real action occurs.

Right from the start when young Kirk Anthony, son of the railway magnate, begins his wild career, all the way through to his final conversion, his father and mother having made good in Panama, the picture follows the story carefully, and many recognizable old friends among the various characters.

The work of Kathryn Williams, who took the part of Mrs. Van Cortlandt, was excellent. In this scene, she displayed an amount of temper that failed to be seen to be appreciated.

Wheeler Oakman as the hero, Kirk Anthony, was also very fine. His work called for a great deal, and he was not lacking.

The picture will be very popular with the readers of the book, and will be at the Grand all week. The full Grand Orchestra handles the score in their usual excellent manner.

Letter From Private H. Maxwell To His Father

FRANCE, JULY 26TH, 1917

DEAR FATHER—I received your most welcome letter a few days ago, and was very glad to hear from you. I am sending you a few lines to let you know the same. I received your parcel a couple of days ago and was very glad to get some Canadian tobacco. It is sure goes good after the tobacco that we get over here.

We are only about seven miles from where Dad Munro is. If I get a chance I will go over and see him. Some of the boys work around here but they are from Wimereux and they don't know him. Tell Alberta that I am getting the Clarensolm papers O.K. and it is very good of her, for I sure like to look at the papers.

I will write Fred Wilkins a letter tonight. Young Al. Musthul is a regular cook over here. He has been cooking here for a few days. Old Dad Wilson is a Laponian and he is good. He is still in the motor transport. I see him quite often. Fred Prentiss is still straight, not quite so fat as he used to be. He sure will have something to talk about when he gets back. I suppose the crops are looking up there this time.

Al. Sherrill is over in France now. The last that I heard of him he was in the hospital. Well I will close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon and often.

Yours, HOWARD MAXWELL

Economy Notes

"Buy perishable food and eat plenty of it—but don't waste it."

If you can't be a fighter, don't be a waster."

The British army, in the army and out, need our entire surplus. They will be glad to take what you have to offer.

The food called for by Great Britain and the allies from Canada and the United States are beef, bacon and wheat. These are the export staples.

"It is now vital for the United Kingdom and the Allies in Europe to obtain from Canada foodstuffs in far larger quantities than under peace conditions" says Lord Rhonda.

"Economy puddings" are the latest forms in which food is served in certain fashionable households. Plain foods are growing into favor again the world over since the war.

"Economy puddings" are the latest forms in which food is served in certain fashionable households. Plain foods are growing into favor again the world over since the war.

Enormous quantities of food are thrown out daily by stores dealing in perishable goods. Dealers have to allow for this loss by including the cost in their margin of profit.

It is the duty of the various civic and taxic organizations to have food which may otherwise be wasted, collected from the stores each day and distributed where it will be most appreciated or sold at cheap prices for the benefit of one of the war funds.

Mr. W. Pratt, general superintendent of the sleeping and dining car department of the C.P.R., has issued instructions that no more meats such as early spring lamb, mutton, chickens, or squabs will be supplied.

Fresh roasts must not be used every day. Cold meats must be used up in some form without waste. Fish is to be served freely according to the kind most plentiful in the sections operated.

Butter and lard must be avoided as much as possible in cooking.

What England Is Doing

American Paper Inclined to Give Credit Where Credit Is Due

A correspondent inquired, solicitorly whether "The Star thinks England is 'dying hard'." From tone and temper of the paper it seems to have been written by a gentleman who has not yet thumped the table between sentences.

It is a familiar question, put usually by someone who thinks George III is still King of England and that the English are still English, but he usually refers to as Perfidious Albion is "the Money Devil." Usual to say that the English have not traced the statements that England is allowing her allies to hear the click of the bayonet. That they are told with a wink, has always been the British policy. England lets the world do the work, and takes the spoils for herself. Didn't she stand on the side lines until Europe had been at it for three years, then step in at Waterloo just in time to capture the prize?

It is natural enough to expect that such superior knowledge would be impressed with the statements made by President Wilson in his Paris speech. He gave figures showing that England had encroached on the 10 million seamen in addition to the 10 million men furnished by the British dominions. The English, however, despite her submarine losses, had turned over two millions tons of shipping to the Allies, and the new building for next year would amount to four million tons. Back of the 10 million men, England has five million workers turning out the material of war.

Her figures convey no impression of British activity those of Mr. Bonar Law, the chancellor, may make us wonder. Mr. Bonar Law, in parliament in moving the new credit (the nineteenth of the war budget) for the year ending April (1918) dollars) that England's war expenditure was now close to $4 million dollars.

Mr. Kenna pointed out in the debate that this is four times England's military expenditure for herself alone in providing these huge budgets. She has advanced more than five billion dollars to her allies.

It would be natural to expect that, in the United States, we have done enough to warrant our beginning to inquire as to what England and France are doing—Kuosa City Star.

Tod's Plantings in Alberta

Johs Giesbrect of Alberta, has planted many trees on his farm near Gleichen. For years ago he planted 1,000 trees on his farm. They were obtained from the government forestry station at Indian Head, Saskatchewan, and from Almond, Manitoba, maple, ash, willow and cottonwood. The maple, ash and willow are from 8 feet high while some of the cottonwood are 12 feet high. Two years ago he planted out 1,000 more trees received from the government and some sort of trees.

A year ago he has out some 1,500 more trees, among which are some tall maples. All are doing well.

Changed His Mind

A man of notoriously bad character residing in a village wished to emigrate to a village in the United States. To obtain his consent, the man must have a character, and the man accordingly asked one from the neighbouring town, who said he should go, and everybody therefore testified to his excellent reputation. The man, however, was not the man himself at this result, and after looking at his certificate with a smile, said, "Well, I had no idea I was so much esteemed in the neighborhood. I think I shall stay."

Granum News

Miss Gardner, now teaching school in the Monarch district, spent the week end with friends in Granum.

Miss Huntley, now teaching school in Cermangay, spent the week end with her parents in Granum.

The heavy frost Saturday morning did considerable damage to the vegetable gardens in this district and undoubtedly more or less damage to standing wheat that was not ripe.

The Robin Hood Elevator, of Granum, has been purchased by the Alberta Pacific Elevator in Claresholm.

Mr. H. R. and R. Vorgeson, Granum, have purchased a Chevrolet car.

The Dave Nelson farm was sold again last week to parties from Spokane. Mr. W. H. Sherman, the owner, noted a small loss, having owned the farm only a short time before making the sale.

Fred Barriman was taken to Calgary last Friday. He is considerably better and we all trust that Fred will return to Granum in a short time with health regained.

Mr. Allan Ellis and Mr. Fraser are shipping their two race horses to the States in a few days, so that they can cross the line which at present seems a little doubtful.

Mrs. J. H. Brown spent a few days in Calgary last week.

Mrs. M. Smith from Claresholm is visiting in Granum for a few weeks.

Quite a few of the wild duck hunters of Granum spent last Saturday, the first day of the duck season, trying out their guns. Some of them returned home Saturday night with a good bag of game.

The town of Belerus in the Crow's Nest Pass district has suffered loss by fire, the extent of $150,000. The business section of this town was practically wiped out.

Mrs. P. A. Stewart and wife, returned from their holiday on the coast last week.

Messrs. Warren Cochin, C. E. Moore, D. Cunningham and J. McGill left for a few days duck hunting on Friday night in the Waterton lakes district.

Miss Mary MacDonald of the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff, Taber, Alta., was in Granum visiting friends on Labor day, September 3rd.

A record growth of wheat on W. A. Blair's farm. Nine acres of wheat sown the 3rd of June and ripened and cut on the 3rd of September. From all appearances this patch will yield from 18 to 20 bushels to the acre. This was a record crop.

Granum Public School opened on Tuesday, September 4th. Principal Minnows returns to act in his capacity. Two new teachers for the other rooms. Miss MacSwain, coming from Cayley district, and Miss Marie Sullivan from Millet situated near Edmonton.

Mr. Joe Britton received word this week of the death of his brother who was in active service in France. Killid, 16, was killed.

Misses Tisdale, Reynolds, and Jean Munro spent a few days this week hunting ducks.

Mrs. Sanger and son from northern Alberta, have been spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Sanger's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, Sr.

Mrs. Cunningham, of Calgary, is visiting with Miss Isabelle Boyle.

The Robin Hood Elevator, of Granum, is being overhauled. An up-to-date machinery is being installed and also about a 14,000 bushel wheat capacity addition is being built. This will give the elevator a total capacity of 28,000 bushel when completed. The Robin Hood Elevator will be ready for fall trade, and will be the most up-to-date elevator in Granum. The company is also installing a man lift.

Stavely News

A. Chard left town Thursday. K. Keiver returned on Friday from his visit.

Howard Wright went to Granum on Wednesday.

Mr. McKinney, of Claresholm, was a visitor in town on Monday.

Meatless days have no terror now. These are duck days.

Mrs. Ruth and Edith Bolston spent the week end in Calgary.

Miss Nelson, of Stewiacke, N. S., is in town in the district.

Mrs. Reynolds and son John returned from visiting friends in Out on Tuesday.

Mrs. Dalley and daughter went to Calgary on Saturday. Miss Dalley is attending school in Calgary.

Mr. Crumley Brub and Keiver returned from their trip to the coast this week.

The Stavely Hotel is having a prosperous season. Every room is filled every night. Good service brings good business.

The Alberta Pacific Grain Co.'s elevator, is being pulled down, preparatory to replacing it with a new one of much larger capacity.

Tau Sing was up before magistrate Cunningham and Dittto on 29th for illegally manipulating a punch board game with results that the province is to be fined $400 and some cheap jewelry.

Mr. Gus Malchowsky is nearing completion and will be one of the best in the district. The rooms are so spacious that the roomer will be content to just how many there are.

There is a splendid opening in town for a good white laundry. Our present Steam Laundry seems to be out of steam. From two to four weeks being required to get laundry returned.

Mr. E. Webster has had his mother from the east visiting with him. He recently took a trip to Calgary to see the world famous horse show.

Mr. Reynolds had the misfortune to fall from the top of the elevator a few days ago. Fortunately on the way down, he hit on several 6 x 8 in beams, which broke his fall, and upon taking stock of his sore spots, found two cracked ribs, and a sore head. It takes a lot of killing to kill George.

Easymoney — An experienced miller has made a killing right now, by starting a flour mill. He can buy wheat at $2.00 per bushel, and sell flour at $1.50 per bush. He could give the bran and shorts to the Patriotic Fund, and so make a good fellow of himself.

On The Ford

The Ford is my auto I shall not want another. It matches me to the bone; it is so light.

It matches me to the bone; it is so light.

It matches me to the bone; it is so light.

For the roads and engine disconcert.

I anguish the tires with patches and the radiator blows over.

I prepare for blowouts in the pre-Sunday.

Surley if this thing follows me all the days of my life.

I will dwell in the bug house forever.

STRAY SHOTS FROM SOLOMON

Take no chances on the fellow who proclaims his virtues in "sound brass." Do business with him in "black and white." The man whose word is as good as his bond does not want to brag about it, he holds his reputation. The man who holds his reputation so anxious to impress people with their goodness, is that they know if they were rated at their true worth would be a heavy loss to him. The man who has a high point. The bear one of these smooth felons talk you would think a shark had strayed earthwards; but give him a good square chance and he will walk off with a wide smile. The man who is not afraid to look you in the eye, while he comes up with his trade. If accomplished scientific scoundrelism were confined to the gentlemen that the police regularly round up, society would be a better place. It is the slick, unctuous children of the Devil that array themselves in society. They are the ones that have in business, and work such ruin society. There is no man in town where they belong would be doing the same.

How Much Owest Thou?

When the books of account are opened in the next world there will be no ledger, no trial balance, no record of debt to credit.

A man died the other day in a Canadian city leaving his wife and two sons. He left no relatives, and a few paupers thousands to whom, perhaps, are pleased to call him a good man. He left a fortune largely in the city where he resided, but any one dare not say he did not leave a large share to his accumulation to him who had helped him get his harvest. Can a man make a million dollars or more and leave not a cent to his wife or his children? Can a man not own his fellow-citizens a cent?

Fortunately succession duty step in, but as effectually as should be. The percentage is too low on large amounts. The man who builds up a business, those who build up these fortunes at the expense of the community should be taxed heavily. The only recognition of the principle that "no man liveth unto himself, and no man dieth unto himself."

Closer View

Another good illustration of the poor man in this country is those who are intimately associated with individual fortune building. The head of an establishment died, leaving a fortune, leaving a comfortable estate and a promising business to pass to his heirs. It is a well known fact that the concern is not concerned, and largely to the staff of employees that have been given a good education, a good education, and who have given quite as much thought and effort to the business as the man who owned it, the proprietor. That such services should not be suitably recognized by a share to the man who has given his life to the reorganization of the establishment, is the flat denial of an obligation as reasonable as the flat denial of a debt. A man should be just to his heirs in these matters. Think the man who has given his life to this in this way by the Judge of all flesh? The golden rule is not applied here with the same recognition of entitlement, wonder how much owned?

A Good Prayer

Another good illustration of the poor man in this country is that man who may offer the Phoenician's prayer, "Lord, I thank thee that I am not as other men, with a spirit of covetousness and great pleasure to the Almighty." He is well known.

It is, therefore, advisable to note the man who prides himself on the fact when he sees a human being held up to his hands and thank heaven for his good fortune, and the man who is held up to his hands and thank heaven for his good fortune.

There are some men who spend a hundred miles from this city, who has prospered in business to an extent, and yet have not a comfortable circumstance. He was originally a "dog troter" but had no hindrance to development. He has however, remained and forever will remain a dog troter, and will never attain to wealth.

Ignorant, self-optimized, selfish, arrogant, narrow, intolerant, jealous, spiteful, and the like are the adjectives that might quite appropriately qualify his character. He is the same man that has a shop in a little shop and made his own goods. Who has a wife and children, and even an intelligent wife have failed to groom the pork out of him. He is a man who has given up to his passion, and all his money has been done for him to put him in a place where he can be a good man. The society is made so plain that those men read who can. A man with only a few dollars to his name, and a wife and children, and even an intelligent wife have failed to groom the pork out of him. He is a man who has given up to his passion, and all his money has been done for him to put him in a place where he can be a good man. The society is made so plain that those men read who can.
